—Easter next year April 20, 1920 April 4, 1921 March 27.
—Thrift Stamps are not postage stamps, but they will carry a message from America to the Kaiser.
—It has been suggested that the wildcat distillers are but obeying the government injunction, "Business as usual."
—The people have permission to eat mutton. But how are we to get the mutton unless we eat the dog that ate the sheep.
—In order not to detract even slightly from the fourth-coming Liberty Loan campaign, the War Council of American Red Cross has postponed the campaign to raise the second War Relief Fund of $100,000,000 to the week of May 20 from the week of May 6.
—When in need of job work, give the Post-Dispatch a trial.
—Convict force No. 2 this week completed the new 2-mile road from Capel's Mills to the Montgomery line at John Broadway's and are now camped at the John McInnis mill. They will build a 3-mile road from the line at Broadway's to Norman. The force has 15 convicts.
—A man or boy who won't work is a loafer. Loafers who do not support themselves or their families are vagrants and parasites consuming what industrious men produce. Men who won't work for themselves should be made to work for the public. Every idler in Rockingham should be scrutinized closely.
—The next term of superior court for trial of criminal cases, to begin April 8th, will be presided over by Judge W. J. Adams, he having exchanged courts with Judge Harding, who will go to Stokes county. Judge Adams will hold courts in Richmond and Stanley, while Judge Harding has a two-weeks' term in Stokes.
—O. V. Bliss, of Oberlin, Ohio, whose business is scientific tree surgery, came here last Friday to work on the trees in the yard of Mrs. Fannie Wall. The premises are being treated by a landscape gardener, Mr. Skoglund, and now a tree surgeon is here to doctor the trees. The cork oak just east of the house is said to be the finest specimen of its kind in the state. Before coming here Mr. Bliss was engaged for several weeks in doctoring the trees of the Oconeechee farm, near Hillsboro, that was so badly windswept in a storm two months ago.
